Explosion of powder factory at Woodlawn, New York, yesterday. Three men killed and several wounded.

The Tom Scott subsidy papers and those in the pay of Jones & Co. charge the independent, outspoken newspapers of the state with attempting to blacken the character of the chief lobbyist of ARCHER'S freights and fares bill—A. A. COHEN. This must be a mistake. No intelligent journalist would undertake a task so hopeless. The ebony hue of the man's character cannot be deepened. It is already as black as midnight; as black as a mountain black cat; as black as a million black crows; as black as the world before God said "let there be light." Nothing can be blacker than Mr. COHEN'S character and to attempt to make it still more black is to paint the lilly, gold refined gold and all that sort of impossible nonsense. Newspapers cannot slander COHEN more than to say he is an honest man and there are few editors who have so little regard for the truth as to make such an absurd statement.

A Wise Measure.

In the early stages of the legislative discussion on the subject of railroad freights and fares, the HERALD suggested as a means of settling all controversies between the people and railroad companies, the passage of a bill authorizing the Governor to appoint three Commissioners who should act as a Board of Examiners and after hearing the complaints of the people confer with the owners of the railroads and secure a correction of the wrongs complained of. The O'CONNOR Commissioner bill passed by the Senate on Wednesday is an embodiment of the idea then advanced. If this bill passes the House, as we have no doubt it will, it will be approved by the Governor and a step will be taken which we are confident will lead to the removal of all causes of complaint against railroads on the part of the people and effect an understanding between the shipper and the carrier so complete and perfect that in future there will be no antagonism between railroad corporations and the communities they serve. Massachusetts adopted this method some years ago and though possessing no mandatory powers, so faithfully have the Commissioners performed the task allotted to them that to-day in no State of the Union does a more friendly and amicable feeling exist between the people and railroad companies than in Massachusetts. On this subject CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, one of the Commissioners from the first, in a speech delivered in Wisconsin in September of last year used the following language:

"Six years ago in the height of the railroad discussion, a Bostoner was established in Massachusetts and I became a member of it. The principle upon which the Board was established at the time thought wholly unsatisfactory; I have since concluded that it was a very happy and happy guess. The Board had no power, or next to none. It was simply an agency through which publicity could be secured; it was to be a lens through which the scattered, diverging, individually powerless rays of public opinion could be concentrated into a focus and brought to bear on any given point of railroad management. In this it had not failed in its purpose. The fact is, like most of the things that are done in the world, it was a very simple idea. A dispute followed as to the share, and one of the trio turned informer. The others were arrested, and the case came up in court. A treasury expert was sent for. The expert examined the bill. It was not counterfeited. It was genuine. The honest Chicagoans were liberated. Everybody happy but the informer.

Three honest Chicagoans had a ten dollar bill—rare circumstance. Somebody told them that it was a counterfeit. They agreed to pass it quietly and divide the change. A dispute followed as to the share, and one of the trio turned informer. The others were arrested, and the case came up in court. A treasury expert was sent for. The expert examined the bill. It was not counterfeited. It was genuine. The honest Chicagoans were liberated. Everybody happy but the informer.

Little five-year-old, after shopping with her mother at leading dry goods store, was asked to move there were a good many boys named 'Cash,' not be made public and he made every effort to shield the guilty man from the consequence of the crime. Babcock's bondsmen it is said paid the defalcation and their information was communicated to the Secretary of Treasury, and it is also alleged that the object of LaGrange's recent visit to Washington was to intercede with Secretary Bristow for condonation of Babcock's crime. Whether he was successful or not in this is as yet unknown.

PACIFIC COAST.

For Los Angeles.

CALIENTE, March 23d.—The Telegraph Stage on time with the following passengers for Los Angeles: D. Hirschfeld, Mrs. Forman and two children, R. C. Tage, D. Burbank, A. C. Lawrence, M. Campbell.

SEVEN PALMS, 23rd.—The following passengers arrived from Arizona and New Mexico stage line last night and left for Los Angeles and San Francisco: Geo. W. Bowers, Margarita Morales and E. E. Hellings.

San Francisco News.

The half mile dash for $1,000, between Humboldt and Bulletneck, at the half mile track to-day, was won by Humboldt in 40 seconds. A trotting race, one-half mile heats, between Emma Skaggs, Dutchy, and Sorrel Ned, half mile and repeat, was won by Emma Skaggs in two heats, Time, 51 and 51 seconds.

The Evening Post to-day publishes an interview with Jost of the Antioch distillery, which develops the following curious story: Phillips had many times offered Jost immunity if he would sue, but the distiller refused. Once they met at a certain office, when Jost paid $1,000 for which he took a receipt that he now holds, and gave him the note for $4,000.

The Pacific Coast Centennial Committee met at W. S. O'Brien's, who said that the brokers had told him the San Francisco Board would probably appropriate $1,000. It was stated that Gen. McCoy, Commissioner from Nevada, had received permission to give $1,000. The $5,000, and the part of the $25,000 appropriation that will be set apart for the Centennial Home, with the other $25,000 mentioned, will be enough to secure the success of the project. Any further sum needed will be easily collected.

J. R. Robinson, stockholder in the Central Pacific Railroad Company has commenced action in the Fourth District Court against the managers of that corporation to restrain them from disposing of any of the property they have acquired since getting control of the railroad.

The Statement recently published in several of the city papers on the authority of the Republican Central Committee that the papers and records of the Independent State Central Committee had been turned over to the former organization turns out to be false. We are authorized to state that all the books and papers of the Independent State Central Committee are still in the hands of its Secretary, John M. Currier, subject to the orders of the committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23d.—The Committee appointed to solicit contributions for the sufferers in Hungary have collected thus far $2000 which amount they sent by telegraphic order to the smitten country yesterday. The Committee will continue their labors. At a meeting of the Citizens Committee of twelve last night Mark L. McDonald was elected President and Donald Foreman, Secretary. After the organization a member said that the Mayor in his epistle to the Board had foreshadowed the duties of the committee. They were to arrange for a mass meeting to memorialize the legislature for permission to appropriate money from the City Treasury to defray the expenses of a delegation to Washington. He had no doubt that the legislature would grant their request, but if they refused, he thought that the citizens would contribute liberally towards a not very considerably sum, which would be needed. Mayor Bryant in response to a request for his views said, my idea is to call a mass meeting and have a set of resolutions adopted by popular voice. If you conclude to send a Committee to Washington, present the names at the meeting, and if they are good men the meeting will undoubtedly endorse the appointment.

City laws are utterly ignored by the Chinese. They don't care what we do here in the hall. When a man is arrested for any offence they first try him in their tribunals and if they conclude that he is not deserving of any punishment they spirit away the witnesses and the city man escapes. The other day a police officer told me that one night he went up to Chinatown to make an arrest, and was told by some Chinamen that they would save him if he didn't go away, that they were running Chinatown themselves.

Let there be a meeting such as was held on the occasion of the bill in Congress to give Government Island to the Railroad Company. Five men I think were sent to Washington with a set of resolutions, and although the bill had passed one house and was likely to pass the other they succeeded in defeating it. I think that such a delegation at this time would be treated with great consideration. It is just before the Presidential election and both great parties are looking toward the Pacific coast for assistance. If a bill is forced through the House I think the other will refuse to confirm it. I have no doubt but that the meeting will be the largest ever held in this city. After adopting a memorial to the Legislature, asking it to allow a sum of money to defray the expenses of the delegation to Washington the Committee adjourned until Saturday next.

Charles B. Ingalls visited the Odd Fellows' cemetery yesterday afternoon and leaving over one of the headstones cut his left forearm with a razor with a design of committing suicide. He was found in that position by a man who conveyed him to the City Hall. He was very weak from loss of blood and refused to assign any reason for his action.

The Mint Defaulter.

SAN FRANCISCO, 23d.—The defalcation at the Mint is some $50,000, and the defaulter is Jefferson L. Babcock, late coiner. A few weeks since he gave way to a successor and from the fact that all the friends of the late coiner were dismissed at the same time it was surmised that all was not as it should be, but the facts in the case have just been developed. It is now asserted that Babcock appropriated to his own use a sum of money given at $50,000 and it was in consequence of the discovery of this defalcation that he was removed from the position. It appears that General La Grange, Superintendent of the Mint, was aware that the matter should not be made public and he made every effort to shield the guilty man from the consequence of the crime.

Night Dispatches.

[FROM THE SPECIAL REPORTER OF THE DAILY HERALD.]

Legislative Proceedings.

SACRAMENTO, March 23d.—The Senate met at 10 A. M. The Lieutenant Governor in the chair. Hill from the Committee on Appropriations reported the bill making an appropriation to arrest the ravages of the phylloxera in the vineyards of the State recommending its passage. He also presented a voluminous report upon this new disease, showing that it threatens to destroy all the vineyards of California. The report was ordered printed.

The Assembly messages coming in, on motion of Bush, Lamour's bill authorizing the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county to erect a jail and to provide for the payment of the same was taken up, the rules suspended and the bill passed.

The concurrent resolution paying Tobin Kuhnhardt $20 out of the contingent fund of each House for the translation of the Governor's message into Spanish was adopted.

The Assembly met at 10 A. M. The Speaker in the chair. McConnell from the Judiciary Committee recommended the indefinite postponement of Pierson's Newspaper Retraction bill. The conclusion of the report of the committee reads: Believing that if enacted into a law, this bill would be useless and inoperative, and knowing that it is an experiment in criminal legislation, your committee finds itself compelled to dissent from the report of the committee and to recommend its rejection by the House. On motion of McConnell the bill was taken up and indefinitely postponed.

The Irrigation bills were then called up; the West side was first considered and after a discussion of several hours was passed by the following vote—aye 19, nay 16.

Upon the re-assembling of the Senate they considered the special file containing only local bills.

EASTERN NEWS.

New York News.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—It was reported last evening that A. T. Stewart, the millionaire dry goods merchant, turned over to the former organization turns out to be false. We are authorized to state that all the books and papers of the Independent State Central Committee are still in the hands of its Secretary, John M. Currier, subject to the orders of the committee.

Henry Bode, a wealthy restaurant keeper of Water street was arrested yesterday on the charge of having, by collusion with one Hedden, a dishonest book-keeper, defrauded the Marine Bank of this city of $38,000.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—The Produce Exchange yesterday adopted resolutions favoring a treaty of reciprocity between the United States and Canada and the appointment of Commissioners to ascertain on what terms, mutually beneficial, it can be established. The resolutions were forwarded to the Committee on Commerce at Washington.

Resignation of Treasurer New. CHICAGO, March 23d.—An Indianapolis special says the resignation of Treasurer John C. New is no surprise to the legislators, who have already paid him $5,000 to live on. He has also made good a deficit of $8,000, and has drawn from the Government about $3,800. He is out of pocket, therefore, about $4,500. He can make money faster at home.

He used to tramp his feet up in little boots, and limp painfully to her residence every Saturday evening; but the morning after his marriage he went into a shoemaker's, drew a chalk mark around his big foot, and about an inch distant from it on both sides and at the heel and toe, and ordered the man to make him a pair of boots after that pattern. Oh, there's sweet liberty, there's balmy boundless freedom in the marriage state of which some beleaguered and storied bachelors have no conception.

A dog fell into the bulkhead which feeds the hydraulic pipe in the Blue Tent Consolidated Company's diggings this morning, and the next place he brought up was against the gravel banks, several hundred feet away. He passed through the pipe a long distance, and made his exit through a five-inch nozzle in a very elongated condition.

The miners on the Nevada county Ridge are about forming a Miners' League. This league will shut out Chinamen, unless they will demand full prices for labor. We think that the Chinamen will not go into the arrangement. John can live at a very low rate of wages.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1875.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The steamer Gipsy arrived Wednesday.

The pay car went to Seven Palms yesterday.

Hon. John B. Felton, of San Francisco is on a visit to this city.

Oscar Macy is building a fine residence on Alameda street.

The Orizaba arrived yesterday, and four cars load of passengers came up from San Pedro.

Efforts are being made to float the Kalorama. A large quantity of tacle was taken to Ventura by the Senator.

They have had a Centennial tea party in Santa Barbara. What is Los Angeles doing that she cannot drink some tea to our glorious country?

Gallagher and Wallace's sparring match will come off a week from tomorrow. The purse is $100 a side and $50 has already been put up by each party.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting our former visitor from the East, Mr. T. Ewing Miller, who has concluded to take one more look at Southern California before going back.

We hope he will conclude to make his home here as he is exactly the kind of man we want.

The Trustees of the German School have purchased two lots on the Southwest corner of Hill and Second streets from John Carlin; price $1,000. They will proceed to build a school house at once at a cost of four or five thousand dollars.

Burkhardt's team ran away with the bakery wagon again yesterday, but did no damage. Marshal Carrillo pursued the runaway and caught them on Fifth street. The Marshal at first thought that Burkhardt was infringing the laws against fast driving, and set out to arrest him.

Mr. M. D. Madegan has been appointed Deputy Assessor for the Northern part of the county. Mr. Madegan has made the assessments of this section for several years, and his appointment is considered very acceptable. He will start out on his duties to-day.

It is said that in the trial of the Five Cent saloon before Mayor Beaudry yesterday two very strong cases were made out—one against the saloon man and one against the officer who made the arrest. Both of them disturbed the peace of the community to a considerable extent. The case was held under advisement.

The Herald job office is the most complete printing establishment South of San Francisco. With steam press, new type and first-class stock under the direction of a superior job printer, we are enabled to work with neatness and dispatch, at rates thirty-three per cent less than it can be done by hand presses.

The Japs will appear at Turn-Verein Hall to-morrow afternoon for the ladies and children. Admission to all parts of the house 50 cents, children half price. To-morrow evening they will give their farewell performance in our city. There will be a full house on both occasions and we advise all to go early. This troupe gives an acrobatic and sleight of hand performance that is seldom or never equalled. No-body would fail to see them.

We call attention to the advertisement of Hobbs & Neale, importers of foreign trees. We are pleased to learn that these gentlemen intend to bring to our doors many of the products of foreign climes which are likely to thrive well in this per cent.

They are prepared to enter into contracts for the planting of orange orchards, and guarantee the lives of the trees they plant. This will surely incite our farmers to renewed activity in the planting of orange trees this season.

The Anaheim paper says that the Chinamen, Ah Lee and Ah Kong, carried to Los Angeles to produce in court the large, broken box which is said to have contained the stolen treasure, about which the recent suits have been. It is a light and frail box, but has an enormous lock, the Chinese apparently thinking that any one disposed to rob it would be deterred by the formidable look of the lock.

Mr. Binford of our city has come to time with a hen story that is worth telling. He has eleven hens altogether and one rooster. Monday he gathered in a crop of ten eggs, Tuesday he harvested eight, and Wednesday twelve. He is confident that no outside hens contributed to the product and now the question is, Did one of the hens lay two eggs on Wednesday, or did the rooster lay one. We submit the question to our philosophers and philanthropists. Apropos of this story, however, our Muggins says he has one. The other day he found two eggs in his barn and he hasn't a chicken in the world.

In Judge Trafford's court yesterday was a case in which one A. J. Praster swore that he was afraid that August Rose would take his scalp. This case is a sequel to the one reported some time ago where the plaintiff in this action ran away with defendant's wife.

Rose is a man so blind that he cannot see a hole through a ladder, and Praster is a burly blacksmith nearly as big as Wilcox the Mariposa representative of the trade and physically capable of getting away with all the blind men and their wives that there are in this county. Judge Trafford very properly dismissed the case at plaintiff's expense.

The World says that "a Los Angeles man dreamed that he was chief of the Copahs, and getting up in his sleep he procured a large cheese knife, gave an ear-piercing whoop and removed his wife's hair with as much neatness and dispatch as if he had been a persecuted red man from his birth. It was a fortunate thing for his wife that her hair was hanging on the back of a chair and not on her head." This is partially wrong. The man did get up in his sleep and procure a large cheese knife, but he went to bed again after taking lunch of Limberger. And then he dreamed that he had swallowed a San Diego editor.

Our Gas Troubles.

It seems that despite the efforts of a large majority of the gas consumers of this city to refrain from using the gas of the company after the first of April, that the only reduction the company can willing make is from $7 per 1,000 to $6. The signers at that meeting and many others who have added their names since are determined either to have their gas at a reduced price which they consider fair, or go back to first principles. It just happens that a splendid substitute has been introduced in this city in the shape of a lamp, which the agents say will give as much light as two burners, and our merchants are buying largely of these. We believe by the first of April they will be universal in use and save our coal oil. By this means they encourage our people who are interested in oil wells, and strike a blow at the monopoly.

This is how a man was saved from a terrible death, according to the San Bernardino Times. "Yesterday Captain Pishon called at Craig's gunsmith shop to get a revolver which he had left there for repair. As he was stepping out of the door with the revolver in his hand, he called to him. He is ahead of him and called to him to stop. A lady passing by hearing the order and seeing the weapon, took in the situation at a glance, and jumping before the gallant Captain begged him in frantic tones not to shoot. The Captain and Judge settled their difficulty amicably by retiring to Al. Rodgers and ordering two straight, without sugar.

Ex-City Treasurer Mellus declines to make out a statement of his accounts until next Monday, and not then unless his salary is paid up to that time.

Eastern papers laugh at the appointment of Judge Taft to the position of Secretary of War. It seems that the chief claim upon the regard of the President was the delivery, a short time ago, of a violent anti-Catholic speech.
